

Overview

4 Corners Communications is seeking a skilled Low Voltage Lead Technician to join our team. The ideal candidate should have experience working with low voltage systems in both residential and commercial settings. As well as, working with power tools, basic knowledge of construction, ability to work with hand tools and safety equipment.

A successful candidate must have a thorough knowledge of cabling standards and codes when installing communications cabling. The ideal candidate will also have great troubleshooting abilities and attention to detail & documentation skills.

Responsibilities

- Install, maintain, and repair low voltage systems, such as wireless systems, camera systems, and telephone/network wiring
- Test and troubleshoot low voltage systems to identify and resolve any issues
- Collaborate with other technicians and contractors to ensure projects are completed on time and within budget
- Read and interpret blueprints, schematics, and technical manuals
- Provide exceptional customer service and communicate effectively with clients

Requirements

- At least 2 years of experience working with low voltage systems
- Experience with installation and maintenance of security systems, fire alarms, and network wiring
- Ability to read and interpret technical manuals, blueprints, and schematics
- Effective communication and customer service skills
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team
- Must have your own reliable transportation and tools
- Flexible schedule, with the ability to work evenings and weekends if needed

Education

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Completion of a vocational or technical program in low voltage systems preferred

Apply Today

If you meet the qualifications and are interested in this exciting opportunity, please send your resume to our team today. Send to office@4cornerscomm.com

Responsibilities

Specific tasks that the employee will be responsible for, such as:

- Installing and testing low voltage telecommunications and data systems
- Troubleshooting and repairing low voltage systems as necessary
- Performing maintenance on low voltage systems to ensure optimal functionality
- Collaborating with other technicians and team members to ensure timely project completion

Qualifications

The necessary qualifications and skills, include:

- Proven experience as a low voltage technician or a similar position
- Ability to read and interpret blueprints and technical manuals
- Experience with hand tools and testing equipment
- Knowledge of relevant electrical codes and safety measures
- Strong problem-solving abilities and attention to detail
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills

Education and Certifications

The preferred educational requirements and certifications that will give the candidate an edge in the application process. Examples include:

- A degree or certificate related to low voltage technology or a related field
- CPR and first aid certifications
- Any relevant trade or technical certifications

Benefits

Some examples include, depending on the position:

- Health, dental, and vision insurance
- Paid vacation, sick leave, and holidays
- Training and career development opportunities
- Quarterly Employee Bonus Program
- Company Vehicle
- Rate of Pay - DOE
- Possible, Housing Options